Privacy Policy

OUR COMMITMENT TO PRIVACY

Your privacy is very important to us. To better protect your privacy we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used.

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted to the App.

The types of personal information collected when registering are:

Name Email address Mobile number

The types of personal information collected when becoming Identity Verified are:

A utility bill Top of a bank statement (excluding financial details) An official document containing your physical address Birth certificate Drivers license Passport

THE WAY WE USE THIS INFORMATION

We use the information you provide about yourself to validate who you are, and to communicate with you from time to time.

We do not share this information with outside parties except for government agencies where we are required to do so under law.

We use an individuals email address to answer the email we receive from them, in addition to sending automatic notifications.

Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may publish details that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that X number of people from a certain country registered, but we would not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

OUR COMMITMENT TO DATA SECURITY

We understand that security is critical. To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect and maintain.

HOW YOU CAN ACCESS OR CORRECT YOUR INFORMATION

You can access and modify all your personally identifiable information (excluding information collected during identity verification, which is not made available over the internet) that we collect online. We use this procedure to better safeguard your information.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.
